My "Hourly rate" for services is $80. The National Christian Counseling Association charges ME $30 per test. I do not make income from testing, but these are so valuable I mandate them for all of my clients.

All payment is expected by the close of each counseling session and may be paid using cash, check, debit or credit card. (I do not accept American Express.) Returned checks will incur an additional fee.

PLEASE NOTE: It is highly recommended that you talk to your insurance carrier IN ADVANCE to insure that your policy covers your expenses for counseling services. A medically coded receipt for sessions will be given to you upon payment. You may submit this to your insurance company for fee reimbursement. I do not bill insurance companies myself.
